Customer has had or will have directors, officers, employees, consultants and agents of Customer to whom Confidential Information is disclosed or who have access to Confidential Information sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement in content substantially similar to this Agreement and will promptly notify the Discloser in writing of the names of each such person who has signed such agreements after such agreements are signed. Customer agrees that it will take all reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of and avoid disclosure or use of Confidential Information in order to prevent it from falling into the public domain or the possession of persons other than those persons authorized hereunder to have any such information, which measures shall include the highest degree of care that Customer utilizes to protect its own Confidential Information of a similar nature. Customer agrees to notify the Discloser in writing of any misuse or misappropriation of such Confidential Information which may come to its attention.

4. Mandatory Disclosure. In the event that the Customer or its directors, officers, employees, consultants or agents are requested or required by legal process to disclose any of the Confidential Information, the Customer shall give prompt notice so that the Discloser may seek a protective order or other appropriate relief. The federal and state courts within the State of Alabama shall have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate any dispute arising out of this Agreement.

Accordingly, Customer agrees and acknowledges that any such violation or threatened violation will cause irreparable injury to the Discloser and that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available, in law, in equity or otherwise, the Discloser shall be entitled to obtain injunctive relief against the threatened breach of this Agreement or the continuation of any such breach, without the necessity of proving actual damages.
